Asbury Overseas House is a characterful purpose built property set in a quiet location with gardens and parking and provides fully furnished, self-contained flats for families/couples. Each flat has everything you are likely to need during your stay in Birmingham, including bedding, cooking equipment and crockery. The property is walking distance of the University of Birmingham main campus and is in a lovely quiet location that would suit international post graduates. BISH have hosted international students for more than 50 years and our aim is to give you a home away from home. Excellent for anyone wanting accommodation that is more than just a room but also an opportunity to pursue your studies in a safe, comfortable and inclusive location. Amenities also include communal laundry area and a communal lounge with small kitchen.
